individual who came to her mind in connection with the description of BILL was NOEL FIELD. She said that she and LAWRENCE DUGGAN and the FIELDS were very closely acquainted in 1933 when they lived in the same house in Washington, D.C. She stated that NOEL FIELD was very thin and was suffering from tuberculosis in one eye. She also recalled that NOEL FIELD'S mother was residing in Arizona and that he returned from Europe to visit his mother. She stated that she could not place the time of this visit. She stated that the fact that BILL had a European accent would not appear to fit FIELD, whom she described as having a so-called Harvard accent. She stated further that Mrs. FIELD was of German birth and consequently had a rather pronounced German accent. She further advised that Mrs. FIELD was rather short, "dumpy" build.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
 HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
 DATE 6/19/87 BY 3042 PWT-PAC

Reference is made to correspondence from the Bureau and Washington Field Office requesting that this office forward photographs of individuals who ELIZABETH BENTLEY had stated resemble the unknown subjects in this case, for the purpose of having drawings made by the Cartographic Section for use in the instant investigation in an effort to identify the subjects.

In this regard, it must first be stated that ELIZABETH BENTLEY had been shown literally thousands of photographs both for the purpose of attempting to identify instant subjects and other unknown subjects in the Gregory case. Until recently her comments as to whether or not these individuals resemble the unknown subjects in this case have not been recorded. There is no complete record as to what photographs have been shown to her.

It is felt that by far the better procedure in accomplishing this project would be to have an artist from the Cartographic Section come to New York and confer with ELIZABETH BENTLEY, at which time she would be able to make appropriate corrections in the drawings. It is felt that considerable time would be saved in this project by following this procedure.

There is, however, being forwarded with this letter photographs of the following individuals who Miss BENTLEY has stated resemble the subjects in some respects.

ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV - Miss BENTLEY has stated that YAKOVLEV as he appears in this photograph resembles the unknown subject to some extent. She has, however, examined several photographs of YAKOVLEV as well as motion pictures of him and has stated

Letter to Director

That YAKOVLEV is definitely not identical with the unknown subject BILL. She stated that BILL has a somewhat older appearance and is much thinner than YAKOVLEV. This photograph of YAKOVLEV is the only one which Miss BENTLEY indicated gives any resemblance to the unknown subject BILL.

Two photographs of a clipping from "American" magazine of ANNE HEYWOOD REID - Miss BENTLEY has stated that there is some resemblance between this individual and the unknown subject CATHERINE, particularly with regard to her build and physical structure.

KATHERINE PIERSEN SCOTT - Miss BENTLEY has stated that the facial features of KATHERINE PIERSEN SCOTT more closely resemble those of the unknown subject CATHERINE than any photograph she has been shown so far.

IMOGENE POSTON JOHNSON - Miss BENTLEY has stated that there is some resemblance in the facial features of this individual to the unknown subject CATHERINE.

DOROTHY LEWIS LAYLIN - When shown the photograph of this individual taken in 1930, Miss BENTLEY stated she believed there was considerable resemblance to CATHERINE in this photograph. However, after viewing the four other photographs of DOROTHY LEWIS LAYLIN included herewith, Miss BENTLEY stated that DOROTHY LAYLIN resembles CATHERINE in so far as physical build is concerned, however, the facial features of Miss LAYLIN as portrayed in these photographs do not resemble CATHERINE too closely.

Unknown time, KASPAROV asked for KESILEV in New York, but was advised he was out, so he asked for APRESIAN who was also out. KASPAROV then spoke with YAKOVLEV, and advised him that the two couriers, BUKIN and POSTNIKOV were in San Francisco and on their way to the USSR. He said they left four pieces of personal baggage in New York when they were last there. KASPAROV asked that this baggage be sent out to San Francisco as soon as possible by express, since they were to leave in four days.

10:40 AM, YAKOVLEV called from the New York Russian Consulate, and talked to KASPAROV, advising that they found only two of the four suitcases belonging to the couriers. KASPAROV stated there were two large green ones which are full and two black ones which are supposed to be empty. YAKOVLEV said he found one of the black ones also, and said he would send the full ones out by Railway Express today.

ReNYlet to Director 1/8/54 which sets out background information and various items of subversive derogatory information concerning Dr. SAUL H. FISHER who was a physician for the Russians in New York City during the middle 1940's. It was contemplated therein that Dr. FISHER would be of assistance in [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] FISHER. However, Bureau authority was received by letter dated 1/26/54 to interview FISHER in view of the possibility that he may have had contact with the subject and his wife. b1

In addition to that part of the interview concerning the subject, FISHER furnished miscellaneous information concerning the other individuals and his other past activities. This letter is being directed to the Bureau inasmuch as some of the miscellaneous information furnished by FISHER may be of interest. A copy of instant letter is being furnished to the Baltimore Office inasmuch as the NY files reflect that Baltimore was the last office of origin in the Dr. HENRY ERNEST SIGERIST case.

In addition to the information set out in NY letter to the Bureau dated 1/8/54 the 1950 American Medical Directory reflects that SAUL H. FISHER was born in 1913, graduated from the NY University College of Medicine in 1936 and was sympathy with Communism and Russia during the Hitler-Stalin Pact. Also, he has always been unsympathetic toward Russians concerning their control of the arts and sciences. ~~SECRET~~ 0/5

He recalled that during the 1930's on rare occasions he attended some meetings of the American League Against War and Fascism which he recalled later changed its name to the American League for Peace and Democracy. He advised that during the period he was in medical school from 1932 to 1936 there was a local chapter at the med school which anyone could attend. He recalled that on one occasion the Dean of the med school attended although only probably for the purpose of checking up on the activities of the meeting. Dr. FISHER was not a part of the leadership which controlled this group from behind the scenes but he assumed that there was such a group.

He was asked if he was ever invited to join a Communist Party cell and he stated that if he was asked it goes back a long way into the middle 1930's so that he could not recall it. He advised he has no knowledge of the past or present existence of any Communist Party cells or groups. He advised that he knew of none in connection with the American Soviet Medical Society but stated it is possible there was such a group.

He advised that he was a convalescent from 1939 to 1943 and was not connected in any way with any subversive organization during that period. He stated that at the present time he has no connections with any organization other than legitimate medical societies. He advised that he has no connections with any ALP group, nor does he have any friends whom he knows to be members of a subversive organization. He advised that during the war he used to subscribe to the publication "New Masses" but has not since. He can think of no other publications with a Communist line that he has subscribed to.

During the JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG case he received flyers asking for funds and received one recently concerning the SOBELL case. He advised that he never contributed a cent to either of those causes. Concerning the National Council of American Soviet Friendship, he stated he was never an active member therein although during the early 1940's he had attended some of their meetings.

He advised that in 1945 or 1946 he was a speaker at the Jefferson School of Social Science on one occasion at a symposium on Soviet medicine and science. He could not recall the source of the invitation but stated it may have come to him through his work on the American Review of Soviet Medicine.

Dr. ROBERT LINCOLN ~~LESLIE~~ N.Y.

Dr. FISHER has known ~~LESLIE~~ about twenty years. During the 1930's and probably at the present time ~~LESLIE~~ was a non-practicing doctor in NYC in the printing business. He nevertheless knew a lot of doctors and held social functions at his home which FISHER occasionally in the 1930's attended. ~~LESLIE~~ had a good feeling toward medical students and would assist them in any way possible. The only mutual organization that ~~LESLIE~~ and FISHER were members of was the American Soviet Medical Society during the middle 1940's.

FISHER still sees ~~LESLIE~~ on rare occasions. His last contact with ~~LESLIE~~ was a year or two ago when to the best of FISHER's recollection ~~LESLIE~~ called FISHER at Bellevue Hospital. That has been the only type of contact that FISHER has had with ~~LESLIE~~ for several years past.

As to ~~LESLIE~~'s well publicized trip to Russia in 1946 before he went over he had a group of doctors at a gathering at his home. Inasmuch as he was to meet many Russian doctors abroad he wanted to be able to ask the proper questions of those doctors. FISHER attended this gathering. Various doctors at that time advised ~~LESLIE~~ all questions they would desire to ask in various specialized fields.

~~LESLIE~~ was apparently proud of his contacts with the Russians inasmuch as he would occasionally state that he was having lunch or some other get-together with various officials not recalled by FISHER. However, FISHER knew of no unusual who had a minor stomach condition. This individual was connected with the UN. The last name BOGDANOV may be in error. FISHER recalled nothing unusual concerning this person.

NY [REDACTED] (S)

Miscellaneous

FISHER advised that never in any form or manner did any of the Russians indicate a desire to defect or to extend their stay in the US. To the contrary, after the war ended the US appeared to them as unfriendly and many of them wanted to return to Russia as soon as possible. The most notable thing about their attitude that impressed FISHER was the fact that during the war, because of their easy living compared to the bitter hardships in Russia, the Russians in the US had a very guilty feeling.

N.Y. FISHER advised that the names of ANATOLI YAKOVLEV and ANATOLI A. ERMOLAEV were unfamiliar to him. He stated that the names of PAVEL FEDOSIMOV and YAKOV LOMAKIN were familiar to him but that was all, that he didn't believe he had known them, and in any case would know nothing unusual concerning them.

Russia. FISHER advised he had heard of the name SERGEI KOURNAKOFF but did not know him. He also stated that he never had any indication that any of the Russians were engaged in espionage. He never heard anything indicating such activity on anyone's part, and never noticed that any Russian might be more important than the actual position he occupied.

Personal Background
Furnished by FISHER

The following was obtained in the event there is a future need for additional identification:

initiated and controlled, or so strongly influenced as to be in the Stalin solar system." (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1947, page 210, and 1948, page 225.)

GERHART EISLER

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, former editor of the "Daily Worker," former East Coast Communist newspaper, testified before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) that he had been informed by high Communist Party officials that HANS BERGER was a strictly underground operative and a responsible comrade whose real name was GERHART EISLER. BUDENZ further testified that he had been told EISLER was equivalent to a representative of the Communist International.

On February 6, 1947, GERHART EISLER appeared before the HCUA and refused to be sworn as a witness. In 1948 GERHART EISLER was indicted and convicted for contempt of Congress. On May 19, 1949, EISLER, while on bond, fled the United States on the Polish liner BATORY after being smuggled aboard this ship.

HARRY GOLD

GOLD was arrested on May 23, 1950, and subsequently pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. On December 9, 1950, in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, GOLD was sentenced to serve thirty years imprisonment.

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc.117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)

ROSENBERG CASE

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. PH 100-1888

Photographs of the following were shown to Mrs. NEUNSON:

VSEVOLOD VSEVOLODOVICH KUZNETSOV
EUGENI YAKOVLEVICH MILNIKOV
ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV
ALEXEI SERGEEVICH BULANOV
ALEXANDER PAVLOVICH BELOV

CAPT. ALEKSANDR F. BELIKOV
PETR PAVOLVICH BELIANINOV
ARSENY PETROVICH VORONIN
LEV NIKOLAEVICH VORONIN

Of the photographs exhibited to her, Mrs. NEUNSON selected the photograph of ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV as that most closely resembling the Russian who called at their home in 1943.

o/s [ She definitely eliminated BELIANINOV as too old to be identical with the unknown caller.

With regard to the Russian visitor discussed above, the subject was reluctant to disclose the name of this visitor when first interviewed by Bureau agents. He described him as a "friend of YAKOVLEV" and finally said his name was BALANOV.

As the New York Office is aware, the Bureau has given authority to interview subjects regarding their espionage activities, and they will be interviewed in the near future. Upon conclusion of these interviews, it is contemplated that past and present associates and contacts who might possibly furnish information concerning the subjects, but who could not be previously interviewed because of the discreet nature of the investigation, will then be interviewed.

There is set forth below the names and identifying data concerning persons situated in the New York Division ~~area~~ who would be located in the New York Division, who should be interviewed immediately upon receipt of such request by this office. The interviews should be extremely thorough and designed to develop any information which will tend to corroborate information previously furnished by [REDACTED] (S) which is in the possession of the New York Office. Any leads resulting from these interviews, when conducted, should immediately be followed up or submitted to the proper office.

It should be borne in mind that in some instances the interviewed persons should be advised of their legal rights.

In those instances wherein information presently in the possession of the New York Office indicates that Bureau authority must be received to interview an individual, the request should be submitted to the Bureau at this time.

SUBJECT: ALFRED DEAN SLACK
ESPIONAGE - R

Re Buffalo teletype June 15, 1950. Enclosed are photographs of GAIK BADALOVICH OVAKIMIAN, SEMEN MARKOVICH SEMENOV and FRED ROSE.

Suggest Buffalo display photographs of SEMENOV and ROSE to SLACK'S father.

Philadelphia teletype, June 13, 1950 indicates SAM (SEMENOV) may have known Kingsport, Tennessee, as whereabouts of SLACK in 1943, and furnished this information to GOLD. This suggests possibility of SLACK'S father having furnished the information to SAM.

FRED ROSE, principal subject in Corby Case, is known to have spent several days with JACOB GOLOS in New York City in 1943 immediately prior to GOLOS' death. ROSE was known as "FRED" and "DEBOUZ" in Coby Case. Photograph of ROSE should be exhibited to SLACK at Syracuse and GOLD at Philadelphia possibly identical with unknown subject FRED.

There is also enclosed photographs of ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV. YAKOVLEV has been identified by GOLD as unknown subject JOHN. Buffalo and Syracuse respectively should display photograph to SLACK'S father and SLACK.

COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES AMONG ALIENS AND NATIONAL GROUPS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1949

UNITED STATES SENATE,
SPECIAL SUBCOMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE
IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY,
Washington, D. C.

The subcommittee met, pursuant to recess, at 10:30 a. m., in room 424, Senate Office Building, Senator Forrest C. Donnell presiding.

Present: Senator Donnell (presiding).

Also present: Messrs. Richard Arens, staff director of the special subcommittee; Frank W. Schroeder and Otto J. Dekom, professional staff.

Senator DONNELL. The hearing will now come to order.

Mr. Arens, will you proceed?

Mr. ARENS. This is a continuation of the hearings on S. 1832 to provide for the exclusion and deportation of subversives.

Our next witness, Mr. Chairman, is Mr. John J. Huber.

Senator DONNELL. Mr. Huber, do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. HUBER. I do.<sup>1</sup>

TESTIMONY OF JOHN J. HUBER

Mr. ARENS. Mr. Huber, is it agreeable with you for all or any part of your testimony today and your identity to be released publicly?

Mr. HUBER. Yes, sir.

Senator DONNELL. Pardon me, Mr. Huber, it is now about 7 minutes before the time the Senate convenes, and I am wondering whether you would be willing to go right ahead with your statement, and then respond to questions of Mr. Arens, or his assistants. I will ask that I be excused from attendance. Are you willing to go right ahead, Mr. Huber?

Mr. HUBER. Yes, sir.

Senator DONNELL. Very well. I am glad to have met you.

Mr. ARENS. Will you please state your name and give us an outline of your background and experience?

Mr. HUBER. My name is John J. Huber. I was born in New York City and have lived in that city and its environs all of my life. In 1937, I was employed in a supervisory capacity in the WPA in New

Jackson read telegrams from Congressman Hugh DeLacy, Upton Sinclair, Herbert Lehman, Edward G. Robinson, Carey McWilliams, and Bartley C. Crum, praising the members of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in their fight against fascism. He continued stating, "We have another legal representative to our convention, Vice Consul Anatole Yakovlev, of the Soviet Union."

Milton Wolf, national commander of the brigade, delivered the keynote address as follows:

Guests, friends, and delegates, the Abraham Lincoln Brigade was born first fighting against fascism. The members have been characterized as fighting anti-Fascists and we have been called other less complimentary names. Certain very blunt commentators have dubbed us premature anti-Fascists. I cannot remember a convention where we have not worked out plans to intensify our fight against fascism. We have always been guided by the motive which sent us to Spain, by the remembrance of the people who gave their lives—the people of Spain. Down the years we have dedicated ourselves to the struggles of peace, and of the conception of a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Men of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade have fought and distinguished themselves in every battlefield.

When we went to Spain in 1936, proclaiming to the world that we would fight fascism, we rejected with our lives all the evils of appeasement and compromise. We have stuck to our guns in the face of the enemy. We feel that it is important for the American people today to review the message of the last 10 years in the light of our own experience. Ten years ago the Spanish people were holding the curtains of democracy against fascism. The Soviet Union was the only country which defended these principles, and did so with matériel and supplied armies. We, the American volunteers of the International Brigade, rejected a policy of appeasement with guns in our hands and with our lives on the battlefronts of Argonne. We maintain that the hope of the world rests with us, the American people. We must reestablish on a firmer basis than ever before, the friendship between the Soviet Union, the United States, and Great Britain, which defeated the Axis and which can maintain the peace and build a better world for us. We must stay in the forefront in the fight for the destruction of fascism, and particularly in Spain. Spain is one of the most important keys to all international development. Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade cannot and will not stop short of a world of peace—a democratic world.

The chairman read greetings from Frank Kingdon, Serge Kous-sevitsky, and Pablo Picasso. Betty Simms sang several Spanish songs, followed by Paul Bates, who also sang Spanish songs. The chairman then stated:

At this time we bring before the convention a person who needs no introduction to members of the Fifteenth Brigade—our own commander of the Thirty-fifth Division whom we know so well as General Walter (General Walter is the name under which Gen. Karol Swierczewski, Polish Vice Minister of Defense, led the Dombrowski brigade in Spain).

His address was delivered in Polish and translated at intervals, but indistinguishable. The essence of it was high praise for the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and to the effect that Polish fighters had fought in Spain in 1936 to prevent the dropping of bombs on Poland in 1939. Jackson continued:

General Walter, who was in Paris only hours ago, has brought with him some awards to be made to some members of our brigade, who have consistently carried on the fight against fascism and have kept alive the fight against Franco. The first name that comes to mind is the name of our own Herman Boettcher; obviously the award will have to be received by someone else—and who better than Comrade Irving Goff.

Irving Goff was a captain in the United States Army, serving with OSS.

It is believed by this office that the Mr. SHEPPARD above referred to by the informant is identical with one CHARLES BRADFORD SHEPPARD who, at the present time, is employed as a radio engineer at the Hazeltine Electronics Company, Little Neck, Long Island, executive offices at 1775 Broadway, New York City. He resides at 489 First Avenue with his wife, EDITH STRICK SHEPPARD. SHEPPARD was born in Camden, New Jersey on October 25, 1918. He is 25 years of age and holds an amateur radio operator's license. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, receiving a Master's Degree. He was formerly employed in the summer time by RCA and Philco Radio and by the University of Pennsylvania. He is registered at Local Selective Service Draft Board #10, Camden, New Jersey.

A preliminary investigation as to SHEPPARD's loyalty and nationalistic tendencies reveals that he is a very brilliant and capable radio engineer and highly thought of at the Hazeltine Electronics Company. His immediate superiors, Mr. WHEELER and Mr. HAPNETT, reliable engineers, have stated that SHEPPARD is a very loyal American and not in the least bit Communistically-inclined and could be trusted to keep information confidential. He could also be approached regarding a confidential matter. His personnel file reveals that he was highly recommended by the University of Pennsylvania and by previous employers. At his residence, 489 First Avenue, New York City, it was ascertained that SHEPPARD and his wife are considered very reliable and not interested in Communism. Mrs. SHEPPARD is taking a pre-Medical course preparatory to becoming a doctor. SHEPPARD is continuing his studies by going to school nights at a Brooklyn Technical School.

The Hazeltine Electronics Company is engaged 100% in war work for the Navy Department manufacturing naval communications and otherwise engage in electronic research for the Navy Department. The executives of this company are engineers of considerable experience and the company is one of the foremost in its field.

The files of this office reveal that SHEPPARD's wife, under her maiden name of EDITH STRICK, 489 First Avenue, was a signer of a Communist Party nominating petition in the 1942 State elections. The files also reveal that one C. B. SHEPPARD signed the Communist Party petitions for the 1942 State elections. The files further reveal that there is a photograph of one CHARLES B. SHEPPARD in the June-July 1940 issue of the Fraternal Outlook, the official organ of the International Workers' Order. A copy of this is not available in this office at the present time to determine if the CHARLES SHEPPARD of this letter is identical with the CHARLES B. SHEPPARD whose photograph appears therein.

VI. EMPLOYEES OF THE SOVIET CONSULATE, NEW YORK CITY (u)

0/s [REDACTED] b1 d

An examination of information appearing in the files of the New York Office reflects that the individuals listed below were male employees of the USSR Consulate in New York City as of approximately April 14, 1944. It is believed that this list reflects the names of most, if not all, regular male employees of the Consulate as of that date. Photographs of these individuals, with the exception of those marked with an asterisk, have been shown to ELIZABETH BENTLEY. Those marked with an asterisk either have no resemblance to the description of the unknown subject, BILL, or left the United States prior to the time ELIZABETH BENTLEY discontinued her contact with BILL. HARRY GOLD convicted espionage agent identified YAKOVLEV as his espionage superior from 1944 to 1946 to whom he furnished information concerning the Atomic Bomb which he, GOLD, had obtained from Dr. KLAUS FUCHS.

On August 20, 1949, SA K. I. ROMAINE of the New Haven Office ascertained that E. BERVY, Roosevelt Drive, Seymour, Connecticut, Telephone Derby 598-12, was a man of about 70 years of age, a Russian Count who escaped after World War I and who entered the United States about 1918 - 1919. Until the summer of 1942, he operated the Riverside Inn, taking summer guests, mostly those persons of Jewish or Russian extraction. It is noted that one ~~ANOTOLE~~ YAKOVLEV, who was assigned to the Soviet Consulate, New York City from 1941 to 1946 was indicted in the Southern District of New York in 1950 for conspiracy to commit espionage. His official duties involved attempts to locate persons who were missing in the USSR and these duties brought him into contact with many persons in the United States who had relatives in the USSR.

The subject on his personnel security questionnaire listed his father and mother as having been born in Russia, but were as of this time deceased.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Superior Court, Fairfield County, Connecticut, reflect that the witnesses at the time the subject and his wife filed petitions for naturalization were ~~LEON~~ FLEISCHER, 249 Golden Hill Street, also listed as 225 Golden Hill Street, Bridgeport, Connecticut, and ~~NINA~~ WIREN, 829 Park Avenue, Bridgeport.

FLEISCHER was at that time a functionary of the Communist Party in Bridgeport, Connecticut and WIREN was active in the Russian War Relief.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

0/s

The Russian War Relief, Inc., was cited in the fourth report on Un-American Activities of the Joint Fact Finding Committee of the 1948 California Legislature as follows:

".... Russian War Relief is in every respect a satellite front of the Communist Party...."
